

"FemAliens"

Solo-W PRINCESS FADE IN:

EXT. OUTER SPACE

An exquisitely beautiful delicate female appears wearing exotic jewelry and fabric barely covering her body and head.

PRINCESS

A long long long time ago... in an age of declining innocence, were laid the seeds of the most bitter duality spreading like a virus through 23 galaxies over 2 million years.

Dearly Beloved... here beginneth our most wretched cautionary tale of the seemingly insignificant events that gave birth to the apocalyptic wars between THE HEMALIENS, and their sworn arch enemies - THE FEMALIENS.

Her face closes in to the striking blue iris of her eye.

The iris dissolves into a blue planet.

Words appear.

2 MILLION YEARS IN THE PAST.

MILKY WAY GALAXY. PLANET EARTH. EARLY 21ST CENTURY AD.

The Earth spins into the iris of an eye. The eye drifts away revealing an attractive female face.

INT. ANONYMOUS STERILE WHITE ROOM.

Delicious blood red fills the screen.

The color moves revealing a nail on a delicate forefinger. A female in a short white dress examines, and then blows on it.

Then she spins towards a bed, upon which lies a bald male. A woman on the other side nods.

They flip him over as a piece of meat, and strap him down. A blow torch lit, a numbered brand is heated until it glows.
