WPC

WIECEK

It was -- thoughtful of you, Wilson. I'm sure she appreciated it. Even more than I do.

UTAH

(what can he say?)

Yes, sir.

WIECEK

That's all, Wilson. You can go back to work now.

Wiecek sits in the jeep looking after him. CAMERA GOES WITH Utah as he moves off to rejoin Duke.

DUKE

(low)

What's that all about?

UTAH

(disturbed)

Nothin' -- it's nothin' --

Behind them, Wiecek drives off.

11 EXT. HOSPITAL - FORT GELLER - ESTABLISHING - DAY and SUPERIMPOSING:

FORT GELLER, TEXAS

OVER which we hear:

CAROLYN (V.O.)

-- well, what can I do for you, Phyllis?

12 INT. CAROLYN'S OFFICE - DAY

(PHYLLIS)

I'd like to have a -- test.

CAROLYN

In connection with that car accident you had? We ran all the tests we needed then -- have you been experiencing any new symptoms?

PHYLLIS

Not from the accident, but -- (beat, then)

Whatever we talk about is private, isn't it? I mean, we're friends, right? But there's also professional confidentiality?

CAROLYN

Of course.

PHYLLIS

(deep breath,
then)

I'd like to have a -- pregnancy test.

(then)

And I want nobody but you to know about it. Is that possible?

CAROLYN

It can be done that way.
(then)

You've missed a period?

PHYLLIS

Two.

CAROLYN

I gather you're hoping you're not pregnant.

PHYLLIS

That's putting it mildly.

CAROLYN

Would you like to talk about it?

PHYLLIS

Not really. I know that must sound very abrupt, Carolyn, but --

She trails off. Another beat, then:

CAROLYN

Well, let's get the test done and see where we are.
