ADDISON

Let's go.

DEREK

Meredith--

MEREDITH

Don't.

Bailey's still behind them at the desk, having witnessed the exchange. Derek turns to her. She just shakes her head.

30 INT. JULIE'S ROOM - DAY

Sc. 2

30

Addison performs an intravaginal ultrasound. Turns the screen to Meredith.

Julie
~~Addison~~

What do you see?

~~Meredith~~ Addison

Bilateral pleural effusions with evidence of sub-Q edema...

JULIE

(to Meredith)

In English, please?

Addison ~~Meredith~~

We've detected what's known as hydrops--

JULIE

Beginning heart failure? Are my babies ok?

~~Meredith~~ Addison

The good news is we've caught it quite early.

JULIE

(~~Looking at Addison~~)

Has it advanced to Stage IV?

~~Meredith~~ Addison

Well--

JULIE

~~Not a fan.~~

(~~to Addison~~)

Tell me what this means.

Addison ~~Meredith~~

It means you need surgery ahead of schedule.

 ADDISON (CONT'D)
 (to Meredith)
 Good catch.

 JULIE
 (under her breath)
 I really don't know why you're congratulating the woman who's screwing your husband.

31 INT. RICHARD'S RECOVERY ROOM - DAY

31

George unloads his folders & papers...

 RICHARD
 What's your report?

 GEORGE
 No report. Very quiet today, sir.

 RICHARD
 There's no news? Gossip? Surgeries
 I should know about? What's the buzz in the halls, O'Malley. The
 OR, the stairwells...

 GEORGE
 (cuts him off)
 Stairwells? No. Definitely nothing happening there...
 (beat)
 Actually. There is one thing...

 RICHARD
 Burke and Shepherd, right? Marking their territory on the playground?

 GEORGE
 No, sir. It's about their patient.

32 INT. MR. SMITHWICK'S ROOM - DAY

32

The NURSE is waiting anxiously for Alex and Izzie when they arrive... Mr. Smithwick is awake and cranky -- preoccupied by abdominal pain.

 NURSE
 BP's 80 over 60. And we found traces of blood in his stool.

 ALEX
 You know what that means.
