LATER

ADDISON

See? Just a small scar.

JULIE

And—my babies?

ADDISON

Your babies are doing very well. And Doctor Grey will be back to check on you a little bit later.

JULIE

Actually, I'd prefer it if Doctor Grey were taken off the case.

ADDISON

Why, is there a problem?

JULIE

Just reminds me of someone I don't like very much. Someone my husband likes a lot. Particularly in lingerie. You understand.

ADDISON

No, no, I don't understand.

JULIE

She's sleeping with your husband, right?

ADDISON

(inhales) Ms. Phillips...I lack Doctor Grey's class and patience so, let me set the record straight. My husband didn't cheat on me, I cheated on him. So the wronged woman here: Doctor Grey. So, I think you owe her one hell of an apology.
